Status of the Claims

Claims 1-73 have been presented for examination.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-40, 54-56, 58, 60, 62, 64, 66, 68 and 70 drawn to transporting a cell through microchannels and electrofusing it to another cell, classified, for example in class 435, subclasses 450-455.
- II. Claims 41-53, 57, 59, 61, 63, 65, 67, 69 and 71 drawn to an electrofusion apparatus containing microchannels, classified, for example in class 204, subclass 451.
- III. Claims 62-63, drawn to a biosensor, classified in class 204, subclass 403.01+.
- IV. Claims 72-73, drawn to a method of conducting stem cell research, unclassifiable.

It is noted that claim 55 depends from claim 37. It is thought that it should depend from claim 41 and will be grouped accordingly if amended as such.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the apparatus can be used to practice electroporation as opposed to electrofusion.

Inventions II, III and IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions an electrofusion apparatus, an undefined biosensor and an undefined method of research. These groups do not share features in common. Group IV, in particular, sets forth no particular steps, so the method claimed cannot be understood, let alone searched. Similarly, Group III sets forth no particular structure or components so that it cannot be understood or searched either.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, and the search required for Group I, II or III is not required for Group IV, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Species

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: specific uses of the method or apparatus of Groups I or II:

- a) in vitro fertilization,
- b) cloning,
- c) cell transfection,
- d) production of monoclonal antibodies,
- e) preparing a hybridoma,
- f) delivery of substances into fused cells.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable if Groups I or II are elected. Currently, claims 1 and 41 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

This is a restriction election only.
